

AUDITION NOTICE:

NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD

Marshfield Community Theatre is excited to produce this fantastic adaptation of George Romero and John Russo's cult-classic film: Night of the Living Dead! This show will be directed by Kelby Lorenz, with assistance by Susie Smith.

MCT will hold auditions for Night of the Living Dead on Sept. 10 and 11 at 7 p.m. in the Jubilee Theater Center at 109 Commercial Street, Marshfield, MO. The show will run Oct. 27-29 and Oct. 31 at 7 p.m. If needed, there will be callbacks on Thursday, Sept. 14 at 7 p.m.

We're looking for around 30 performers ages 16 and up. The audition will consist of cold readings from the show and prepared monologue performances from everyone who auditions.

WHAT TO PREPARE:

Everyone should prepare a memorized dramatic or horror monologue no longer than 1 minute in length from an existing play. If you have any questions about your monologue preparation, please reach out at planning@marshfieldtheatre.org.

SHOW SYNOPSIS:

Fall out from a satellite probe shot to Venus returns to Earth carrying a mysterious radiation that transforms the unburied dead into flesh-eating zombies. Seven people trapped in an isolated farmhouse, held hostage by the ravenous ghouls, begin to turn on each other as the dead encroach. A gripping terror-filled monochromatic play that brings all the fright of the cult classic to life. This blend of thrilling horror laced with touches of black humor envelops the audience in the action and unfolds into a shocking theatrical ending.
